I Rode the Ti

This homey CD just screams "Made in Vermont" thanks to songs celebrating the old Lake Champlain steamboat

Ticonderoga and driving the entire length of the state on U.S. 7. Rick Norcross' weather-worn voice and vocalist

Taryn Noelle's sweet sounds make for a nice opposites-attract pairing, coming together most beautifully on the surprisingly gleeful "You're Gonna Get Hurt." www.rickandtheramblers.com.
